

9% of primary school pupils said they have not eaten anything before school

9% children aged 0 – 15 are living in relative poverty

35% of primary pupils said they are not currently happy in life

-10 life expectancy in deprived areas is up to 10 years lower than wealthier areas

18% of residents worried that food would run out before they could buy more